Diana Patton has an update for us:

"First let me say that I really enjoy your Newsletter, Jen! You do a great job and they are works of art in themselves as Newsletters! I miss all of you and our meetings. Of course I'm still painting and writing/illustrating, but it would be lovely to visit with you all; maybe we'll have a zoom demo? BTW my next picture book, Zorrie Electra, Boo Barn Consultant, should be out in three weeks.

"Diana Patton was juried into the Pittsburgh Watercolor Society last March (just ahead of Covid 19 quarantining!) She had three entries in their online exhibit 'Art in the Time of Corona' and has two paintings in the "live" (wow! live!) juried show at Frank Lloyd Wright's Fallingwater.' While you still have plenty of time to see this exhibit in person at Fallingwater, you can also view all 30 works online via the Fallingwater website at, <https://fallingwatermuseumstore.org/collections/pittsburgh-watercolor-society>

"This collaborative exhibit between the two organizations presents paintings of the iconic house and its surroundings, by some of the best watercolor artists in the region. The exhibit
